

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? Nuck82 - I started collecting comics when I was around 8, still remember riding my bike to the comic store. I didn't start collecting comic collectible's until this past year. When i was younger my dad told me to make sure to keep my comics, and in a safe place. He was really into the war comics of the 50's and 60's, Sgt Rock and Nick Fury, but his mom through them all away and he regrets that happening even now, so i still have every comic book I ever bought. 10% of my comic collection is Mickey Mouse and Roger Rabbit. lol John Arturo - Your collection seems to contain lots of "super-deformed" or "big-headed" character. What draws you to these types of collectibles? Nuck82 - lol I don't know, I just saw Marvel Mighty Muggs this
