

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? Shannon Cornthwaite - (laughs) I've been collecting on and off since I was in grade school. I started out like most kids with Spider-man and the X-Men. A few years ago though, I owned a tattoo studio with a "friend" and when things didn't work out with us as partners he gave all of my comics away, so with this collection I've only been collecting for about 2 or 3 years. And one comic in particular that was in that original collection that I hope one day I can find in the same condition I had it in was the issue of Superman which showed Mitch Anderson's first appearance as OUTBURST. John Arturo - Why Green Lantern? Shannon Cornthwaite - Well... I just really like what GL represents... he's an ordinary guy who can turn

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/johnarturo/news/?a=46539&t=CBM_Collectors_Collections_-_Shannon_Cornthwaite