

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? Stephen Magnotta - I started back in 2008 when the first Iron Man came out I was never big on the comic because I didn't know too much about him. When I was younger I didn't even know he was human. lol When I saw the movie I was very interested in him because I think building a suit and making yourself a superhero instead of being born like Thor or X men. John Arturo - Why Iron Man? Stephen Magnotta - In the Early days I really Liked the Tony Stark side of him being a billionaire running your own company very smart, And the Suits are very cool all the different kinds, Space, Water, even the Mark 1 and 2 early on. John Arturo - Do you collect anything else? Stephen Magnotta - Not really
