

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby?

TECHNODROME518 - I started to take my collecting a little more seriously around 17 or 18.

But I've saved most of my childhood toys, so I guess I've been "collecting" since I was 7 or 8. I got into the hobby of collecting comic book stuff probably from my older brother and sister. In the early/mid 90's they were fans of The X-Men and Spider-man. Where as I was the youngest and liked TMNT and Batman. I would have to say they planted the seeds that would eventually grow into a love for anything Marvel. Thanks bro and sis! John Arturo - Your collection seems to focus on Marvel. What draws you to Marvel over the other big company DC?
