

John Arturo - When did you start collecting and how did you get into the hobby? Timothy Stuckey - I started collecting when I was about 8 years old my mother worked at a convenience store and I would grab comics off the rack when I would go visit her at work. I got into the hobby due to my father being a huge science fiction nut, so he encouraged me to read comics. We always watched Star Trek, Dr Who, Blade Runner stuff in that manner. John Arturo - Your collection mainly consists of Marvel collectibles, what draws you to Marvel over another company like DC Comics? Timothy Stuckey - Marvel has always been my company of choice due to the characters. With Marvel you know you could never be one of them, but they make it more possible to be a hero in the ways of reality. With
