

We've been slaving over the last couple months to come up with a new, upgraded design for the site, and frankly, we're a bit burned out and need "new eyes" to help us. So, here are three different "looks" that we want to get community feedback on. There are some things to keep in mind when judging: 1) The main thing we are looking for your input on at this stage is what works VISUALLY--mainly the color schemes, and what "jumps out" at you as being good, bad or ugly. Don't worry about site FEATURES in this round. If you have a suggestion for different colors, tell us (or show us) in the comments. 2) You'll notice the designs have different logos. Try to keep the logos separate from the design in your mind, we can always change logos out to whichever design is the most popular. And let us know
