

CBM has grown from a site that a fan of comic book movies created to post news where he could find them to one of the biggest sources for scoops on these types of film, and one with a huge community. Movie sites like joblo and cinemablend use your news, comicbookresources does as well and even bleedingcool doesn't escape it. But CBM needs to grow up to be all that it can. And by grow up I mean not having News on the main page that aren't, articles filled with errors and without a minimum search of information to support them ('The Redacted'... My God.) and not being permissive with lack of education. For every good article I read in this site, a couple of scrolls down lead me to name-calling, most of the time for no reason. Things like faggot and cocksucker can be found in almost every comment section. Now, I
