

"We're not trapped out here with you... you're trapped out here with us." Tonight's episode saw Sam & Dean escape from an off-the-books government facility where they also engaged in one of their most badass action sequences ever. The episode then ended with a shocking twist as Castiel killed Billie and freed the Winchester family from a terrible fate. Next week, the ride continues as it's Cas, who comes under fire when a woman named Lily Sunder seeks revenge on a group of angels that murdered her family over a century ago. Check out the new promo for episode ten, titled "Lily Sunder Has Some Regrets," below:
