

EW has released a batch of new stills from several upcoming 2017 releases, and we've gathered together the ones that may be of interest below. We have a Matrix reunion as Keanu Reeves' titular hitman from John Wick: Chapter 2 confronts The Bowery King played by Laurence Fishburne, as well as a new look at Tom Cruise's character from The Mummy reboot alongside Russell Crowe, who will play Dr. Henry Jekyll in the movie. Will we see him "Hyde-out" at all? In addition, there's a first official glimpse of Snowpiercer director Bong Joon-ho's new creature-feature Okja, a new still from Christopher Nolan's Dunkirk, and finally a pic from David Soren's animated adaptation of Dav Pilkey's series of Captain Underpants books.
