

Logan is almost with us, so you may want to hold off on checking out any more footage from the film - but if you do want to see a little more, there are some cool new shots in these latest TV spots. The "X-Men Fan" one is basically just a shorter version of the final trailer, but "New Friends" features quite a bit of new stuff that'll no doubt hit you right in the feels. There's also a spot cross-promoting Manchester United footballer Wayne Rooney, and another announcing that tickets for the movie are now on sale. Be sure to check back later today when the review embargo lifts for the first critical reactions. It's time.
