

Talking to Collider, Chris Evans had this to say about some of the deleted scenes we can expect to see on the DVD and Blu-ray. "I was talking to Joss and he was like, 'So apparently I shot a five hour movie' so a lot of stuff had to go. There was a lot more backstory about Cap getting a bad feel of the world. Just not adapting to the way things work. You can't have too much backstory for each individual character." Chris Hemsworth on the other hand doesn't think there will be any extra Thor footage to be found. Be sure to check out the video interview below for that and more on their initial reactions to the script and meeting young fans of the characters they play. In an interview with MTV Splash Page, actress Cobie Smulders has speculated about the chances of returning as Maria Hill in

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JoshWildingNewsAndReviews/news/?a=58927>