

Talking with Fans Share, the actor behind 'Captain America' in the highly-anticipated assembly of Marvel's The Avengers, Chris Evans, discussed sharing the workload this time around; in addition to praising "The Man" Stan Lee. Also commenting on The Avengers essential plot, seemingly teasing the guaranteed sequel, read on below! "It's a lot easier now. Now that we've gotten past that first wave of Captain America and the press and all that madness and now we're into The Avengers, where I get to share some of the work load, it's become a lot easier." "[Stan Lee]'s fantastic. He did a cameo on the Fantastic Four films, so I've met him a few times, and he was just amazing. He's a living legend. He's got so much energy and so much personality and he's so positive, always smiling and always cracking jokes. He really is one amazing human being." "There are a lot of growing pains

Read more: http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/MarvelFreshman/news/?a=53022&t=Chris_Evans_Dishes_On_Stan_Lee_And_Reiterates_Sharing_The_Workload_On_THE_AVENGERS