

In a revealing interview with Coming Soon, Chris Evans has talked about both Captain America: The First Avenger and Scott Pilgrim Vs. The World, focusing on the financial success, and possible failure, of them both. Be sure to click on the link below to head on over to the site where you can read much more about his new movie, Puncture, as well as seeing him suggest that he and interviewer Max Evry smoke some weed... You guys just shot some of "Avengers" in our fair city. The fans came out, the pictures hit the internet. Clearly you're a rock star now, the world's your stadium... how does that level of success change the equation? It's been okay. I mean, it's crazy when you're filming, during the days we were shooting it was a hassle getting to and from places, but when the camera stops rolling my life kinda goes back to being
