

Despite the huge excitement for The Avengers, many fans have been left wondering just how exactly Joss Whedon and Marvel Studios will share the spotlight equally for each team member. While talking about his excitement for the movie, Chris Hemsworth was quick to point out that each character and actor will receive the attention they deserve. Movie Trailers - Movies Blog "We've met sort of separately at various events and things, but yet to all sit down in the same room and do a read through...which I'm very excited about. "Yes and no. All of a sudden there's more people to sort of take some of the weight of it all, but also you want to do your bit and stand out, you know so it's a combination. But, the excitement outweighs all of that. I'm a huge fan of these characters and these actors." "Everyone really does get a go and I think Joss
