

While chatting with MTV, The Dark Knight Rises star Christian Bale was asked about whether or not he would enjoy seeing someone else continue the Batman legacy. Bale said that he would be happy to see it and is intrigued to see what happens with Batman since they are done with the character. He even complimented Adam West's Batman interpretation calling it Fantastic. Get More: Movie Trailers, Movies Blog "I'm very intrigued to see other interpretations of it, at this point. There have been many wonderful ones Adam West did a fantastic job spoofing it and I am being sincere. And we returned to the darkness, which I'm told is what Bob Kane intended it to be when he created this. Chris has managed to make it topical, well for Bob Kane it was topical for World War II. So it will be very interesting to see what somebody else does with the
