

Before Christopher Nolan releases his final Batman film he will be honored at the prestigious Grauman's Chinese Theater. The director of Batman Begins, The Dark Knight and the upcoming blockbuster The Dark Knight Rises will be immortalized on the walk next to such stars as Marilyn Monroe and Clark Gable. In celebration of the upcoming release of "The Dark Knight Rises," the film's director/writer/producer, Christopher Nolan, will be accorded a rare industry honor: Nolan will have his hand and footprints cemented into the famed forecourt of Grauman's Chinese Theatre in Hollywood. The hand-and-footprint ceremony will take place on Saturday, July 7, at 10:00 a.m. Jeff Robinov, President, Warner Bros. Pictures Group, stated, "Everyone at Warner Bros. joins me in congratulating Christopher Nolan, who has been such an integral part of our family for the past 12 years. We are extremely proud of the cinematic legacy he has given us through his films. At
