

One of the most exciting things about the upcoming DC TV crossover on The CW is going to be seeing all of the characters we know and love come together for the first time. Some have met before, but most haven't crossed paths before now. That's something we get a taste of in the image below as we see the Green Arrow alongside the likes of Citizen Steel, Heat Wave, Vixen, The Atom, and Supergirl. It's worth noting that not only does Citizen Steel have a brand new costume, but Ray Palmer seems to be wearing the suit he puts under his Atom armour. He'll clearly get that back sooner rather than later then despite currently attempting to take on the role of Captain Cold in Legends of Tomorrow. Oh, and the shot of Diggle seemingly going after Green Arrow and The Flash is obviously also pretty intriguing! What do you guys think of this first look at the crossover? As always, let
