

The guys over at That Hashtag Show have been on a roll recently, sharing character breakdowns for the likes of The Inhumans and Josh Boone's New Mutants movie over the past week or so. Now, they've provided us with descriptions for the two leads of Marvel and Freeform's Cloak and Dagger TV series. As usual, the real identities of the characters are obscured, but it's pretty obvious that these guys are supposed to be the troubled teens who become the show's heroes of light and darkness.

Tara – Female, 18 to play 17, Caucasian. Tara was a plucky southern girl who grew up with everything. She was always full of light. Then an accident took away everything. Now she's a cynic who steals from tourists to make ends meet. Life took from her. She's going to take back. But can that light be rekindled? Series Lead.

Travis – Male. 18 to play 17. African American. When Travis was a little boy he was fearless. But
