

Tina Boland Dinah Drake has arrived in Star City. While it had been rumored for a few weeks, last night's episode of Arrow finally confirmed what many already suspected, that Juliana Harkavy's new character "Tina Boland" was, in fact, the one and only Dinah Drake, who in the comics went on to become the original Black Canary. We were introduced to Drake in a fairly eventful episode, which at the end of the hour, saw her accept Oliver's offer to join Team Arrow as the new Black Canary and next week, it looks like we'll be getting our first look at her in-costume and in the field alongside her new teammates. The next episode will also take the team to Russia where they link up with Anatoly, who gives them a deadly mission. Check out the extended promo for episode twelve, titled "Bratva," as well as a second promo below: "Bratva" - (8:00-9:00 p.m. ET) (TV-14, LV) (HDTV) OLIVER RETURNS TO RUSSIA - A mission takes
