

In less than a month every single issue of the New 52 has sold out requiring a second print, and in the case of Justice League a fourth. Whether you have enjoyed the actual comics or not there is no denying the decision to revamp continuity with the DCnU was a big success. Here is the report in full from The Source.. It's official! All 52 first issues of DC Entertainment's historic publishing initiative DC COMICS – THE NEW 52 have sold out from Diamond Comic Distributors in advance of publication. And all 52 issues will receive second printings. Here's a further look inside the numbers for DC COMICS-THE NEW 52: • ACTION and BATGIRL already have third printings and JUSTICE LEAGUE, the bestselling comic book to date for all of 2011, is in its fourth printing. • AQUAMAN #1 is the eleventh title in DC Comics-The New 52 with sales of more than 100,000.
