

Amazing Spider-Man #695 gives us yet another glimpse at "Marvel NOW!". As you can see, some of Madame Web's vision is made up of some previously seen artwork (from Uncanny Avengers, All-New X-Men and a few of the Point One teasers) but a lot of it is definitely new. Some of the most noteworthy pieces of this intriguing puzzle include an armoured Lizard, a dying Doctor Octopus, Spider-Man's stingers, a drowning Peter Parker, a falling Daredevil and a whole lot more! Many thanks to Bleeding Cool for the scan. Click on the image below to view the full-size version.
