

Previously today, we have seen the first look of Nite-Owl II by Joe and Andy Kubert from the upcoming Watchmen prequel project. And now, again thanks to Bleeding Cool, we get our first look at The Comedian by artist J.G. Jones, who previously has been reported to handle the solo title of the character. To note that the website also teased us with a rumor that we will hear more about the project on New Year, which you can check by yourself by clicking the link below.

What do you think of this? As usual, sound off with your thoughts below.
