

When Jim Lee returns to art duties on Justice League #9, he will be bringing a new villain with him. Geoff Johns will be penning the brand new story "The Villains Journey", and below we have our first glimpse at what that villain will look like thanks to an early design sketch by Lee.. Pretty cool design, some interesting children's face..things going on with his forearms there too. What's the verdict? More details as we have em, the solicitation is below.
