

In an interview with Newsarama, Kieron Gillen has talked in detail about ending his Uncanny X-Men run and teased fans with what they should expect from Avengers Vs. X-Men epilogue, AvX: Consequences. The writer also comments briefly on his other 'Marvel NOW!' series which will accompany Iron Man later this year, hinting that it will be connected to Journey Into Mystery somehow (possibly meaning it will be the rumoured Young Avengers series also featuring Wiccan and Miss America). Be sure to click on the link at the bottom of the page to read the interview in full and sound off with your thoughts on the comments below in the usual place. On Why He Decided To Write An Epilogue To Avengers Vs. X-Men: When Nick [Lowe] asked me whether I'd be interested in writing a five-issue epilogue to AvX, part of the appeal was to do a story that dug a little

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JoshWildingNewsAndReviews/news/?a=66797>