

Literally nothing on this one except the teaser.. And that we will find out more Saturday, March 17th at the Talk To The Hat panel, 4:00PM PST, during Wondercon 2012. And Bleeding Cool have an early scoop on what is to become of the Thunderbolts. According to them with issues #175 and #176 the comic is to be renamed Dark Avengers with Jeff Parker and Decan Shalvey on board. Apparently Marvel were set to announce this at Wondercon but the news clearly leaked early. Bleeding Cool note that readers of this week's Avengers might have an idea who will be making up the new team. I haven't read it, if you have feel free to share!
