

A rare copy of The Amazing fantasy #15, which is the first appearance of Spider-Man, has been stolen from a man in Lincoln, Nebraska. The issue was tucked away with his other comics and was stolen somewhere between October 27 and Monday. The comic is valued at $15,000, but the unnamed man reportedly paid around 1.1 Million dollars for the issue. From The Lincoln Journal Star: a $15,000 Spider Man collector's edition comic book is missing from a Lincoln home. The issue went missing between Oct. 27 and Monday morning, the owner told police. The man said he had it with other comic books, but several people had been in and out of the house since he last saw it. Police have no leads in finding the stolen comic which debuted in 1962 for the steep price of 12 Cents. For more information click the source link below.
