

Talking to Comic Book Resources, artist Nic Klein (best known for his work on Image Comics' Dancer) has revealed the first piece of artwork from his take on Bucky, a.k.a. The Winter Soldier. He also discusses what he hopes to bring to the series - which current scribe Ed Brubaker will be leaving behind in January - alongside new writer Jason Latour. More can be found by clicking on the link at the bottom of the page. On What Made Him Decide To Accept The Job As New Winter Soldier Artist: It was Jason's writing, because he's an artist himself, and quite a great artist as well. Jason has a great visual mind. He writes some cool stuff that's fun to draw. I think artists who write maybe have a better understanding of what to give an artist to draw because they come from a visual background themselves. I've been lucky because
