

Once again bleedingcool.com has more details of DC Comics rumored prequels to Alan Moore's classic comic book series. As a reminder yesterday they reported that artist Andy Kubert would be drawing one of the four mini-series, but today we have new specific details. Bleeding Cool says that not only is Andy Kubert going to be working on one of the prequels, but so is his father, Joe Kubert. Andy's father is the founder of The Kubert School a prestigious school for comic book artists located in New Jersey. Joe is best known for his work on DC Comics Sgt. Rock & Hawkman. The father and son team will supposedly will be working on a Nite Owl mini-series. This prequel is expected to involve the original Nite Owl and his replacement. A source has informed Bleeding Cool that Darwyn Cooke will be handling the writing duties on the Comedian series. Darwyn is an
