

Thanks to Newsarama, we have the following preview of Avengers #18 as well as two teasers for November's Fantastic Four #600 and a mysterious new arc in January's Journey Into Mystery. Marvel seem to be teasing a lot of story arcs which aren't set to debut until next year, so whether any of these will be elaborated upon in the upcoming Point One one-shot is unclear. All we do know is that the Fantastic Four will clearly have their hands full in #600 (released next month) and after five consecutive teasers, we still have no indication whether Johnny Storm, the Human Torch, will indeed return. Norman Osborn and H.A.M.M.E.R. return! Witness the new Avengers line-up in action!
