

Though it's not really a radical departure from his current Rebirth look, The Man of Steel is set to debut a new costume in the pages of Superman #20 and Action Comics #977 this April. As you can see from the covers below (via Comibook.com), this outfit sports a few subtle differences around the collar, cuffs, boots and belt, which give Supes a more classic appearance - though those divisive red shorts are still absent. Check out the covers below along with the solicitations for both issues.
