

We will be running a few of these using recent set pics from TDKR, Avengers and Man Of Steel. First up is this recent shot of Bats and Bane from TDKR You can have Bats quip to Bane, Bane quip to Bats or an exchange between both. Keep em short enough if possible but pretty much anything goes. The winner will be the one who's caption is cleverest/funniest but there will be prizes for 2 runners up too! All you have to do is post your caption in the comments section. For added effect you can post the pic with your caption added on but it's not necessary. The winners will receive an awesome shopping spree courtesy of our friends at Superhero Stuff! To check out some of the items they have on offer click on the image below to head on over to their site. By TwitterButtons.com
