

Construction on a 350,000 million square foot Marvel theme park has begun in the City of Arabia, Dubai. Marvel Adventure will be a vital part of IMG Group (The Ilyas & Mustafa Galadari Group) plans to open a gigantic entertainment centre and will include various retail outlets, dining facilities and "interactive entertainment experiences" which will all feature Marvel characters. Set to open at the end of 2013, an official ground breaking ceremony took place earlier today to signify the start of construction. "We are pleased to collaborate with Marvel for our multi-faceted themed family entertainment destination. This will be one part of the region's largest entertainment destinations that IMG is developing which is sure to be a strategic landmark in Dubai, appealing to the region as well as other parts of the world," said Ilyas Galadari and Mustafa Galadari of IMG Group. "Following the outstanding global and local box office success
