

We have featured Linda Le (VampyBitMe) here on CBM several times before (Phoenix, Ms Marvel, Psylocke), but I think her latest shoot as Nightwing with Long Vo Photography is probably her best yet. Linda was good enough to send us over the full set of pics from the shoot, in which she sports her latest costume - designed and created by Linda herself, and her team 'Mantium' - made from Aluminum, Carbon Fiber, Polyurethane stretch fabric, fake leather, and foam & latex.. Be sure to follow Linda on Twitter, and go see her in her Nightwing cosplay at NYCC at the Triforce booth #1057.
