

At first I kind of glossed over it, thinking it might be custom fan art of some kind, but HissTank board member "BIG BOSS" says he works for a t-shirt licensor who will be producing clothing for the G.I. Joe: Retaliation film, and he provided some artwork that may be getting used on these shirts. Considering how closely the Snake Eyes artwork matches what we saw on the IDW cover, I'd say these seem like they could be authentic. Granted, there isn't a ton of detail here, but enough detail to be interesting and newsworthy I think. Personally? I'm quickly falling in love with this Snake Eyes design. The integrated armor on the shoulders and the forearms is pretty damn great. Snake Eyes: Jinx: Storm Shadow: G.I. Joe: Retaliation hits theaters June 29, 2012!
