

Official reviews for Rogue One: A Star Wars Story are still pouring in, and things are looking fairly positive for the Star Wars prequel. The film is currently sitting at 84% on Rotten Tomatoes, and despite a few complaints here and there, seems to be holding strong with critics. An official TV spot has made its way online which features some new footage, coupled with some of the positive critical reactions to the film. Be sure to check out the reviews from CBM's own RorMachine and Nate Best as well! Have you got your tickets to see Rogue One? Let us know in the comments!
