

Craig boldly states that the new Bond movie has a better script than Casino Royale. Hard to believe since to me, Casino Royale is easily in my top 3 Bond Films of all time. I really appreciate this newer version taking on a more realistic approach to the females, the dialogue, and the technology. As discussed in the interview, Austin Powers surprisingly influenced the new Bond films quite a bit. Check it out. Craig said: "I think it's a great choice because Sam has a fervour and energy to really direct a Bond movie with a capital B. "He'll feet-first run himself into it, [he's] read every book and just soaked up everything about it. I read the script the other day and I'm more excited about this than I was about Casino because we've kind of got a classic Bond movie plus lots of other things." Asked if a "classic" Bond meant a
