

Matt Galvatron here with our Big Dark Knight Rises Trailer 3 Special! We give our impressions, theories and then break down the trailer frame by frame. I think it's funny that a trailer that's shorter than 4 minutes can spawn a podcast that's over 2 hours! But we were excited..heck this podcast is almost as long as the actual Dark Knight film! But we left no stone unturned and there's probably not a trailer analysis as in-depth as this special. SO ENJOY :) Download Here Also please subscribe on ITUNES and leave a comment, rate and review us on there as well :) As always you can write to us at podcast@darkknightnews.com
