

DC Collectibles, the exclusive line of collector items from DC Entertainment, continues to build out its recently expanded online store, and now offers a high-end line of custom graphic prints for sale exclusively online. Fans may recall that a limited selection of the custom prints were available for sale at C2E2 earlier this year, and based on popular demand an expanded line-up is now available for sale here. More than 20 prints are currently available, with new prints added all the time. Make sure to visit DC Collectibles store (www.shopdccollectibles.com) regularly as a one-stop shop for the latest prints, statues, action figures and more collectible awesomeness!
