

It has been reported that Warner Brother is shooting for a Justice League movie in the year 2013. Bruno Schwobthaler, Senior Vice President of Sales and Business Development for Warner Brothers, recently stated that Batman and Superman will be the main focus of the company, but to expect to be introduced to more DC characters in the coming three years starting with June's Green Lantern. Said Schwobthaler: "Over the next 3 years there will be no escaping from the DC Universe as we deliver on our commitment to produce new content. We will be investing significant resource in further developing the iconic Batman and Superman franchises whilst also strategically introducing some of the other key characters from the huge and largely untapped DC portfolio starting with Green Lantern." There have been no mention on which superheros are going to be introduced, but with all the rumors lately I find it highly likely that we
