

This Wednesday will see the publication of Flashpoint #3, the mid-point, and it will reveal the secrets of Project: Superman while the armies of Aquaman and Wonder Woman are warring against each other. Event editor Eddie Berganza says of those who are reading Flashpoint, "They're starting to figure out where these 52 are coming from, and it's staring them right in the face with Flashpoint. A lot of the concepts, a lot of the ideas, they're cropping up within the pages. You have a book called Frankenstein in the Flashpoint world, and guess what, we're doing Frankenstein, Agent of SHADE. You'll see a couple of other background players start showing up that become more important as we go into September." The various aspects of Flashpoint have done away with long established alliances between heroes, and emphasized an edgier world demonstrated largely by the aforementioned war between Aquaman and Wonder Woman. "At times, we
