

The CW has reportedly confirmed that longtime Batman villain and Suicide Squad member, Deadshot will be taking on Starling City's Emerald Archer in Episode 3 of Arrow. No word yet on who will be portraying the villain. It will be interesting to see how the show interprets the character, will it be the classic look from the comic books (they've teased Deathstroke's comic book mask) or something slightly more realistic like what was shown in Batman: Arkham City. The third episode has been titled, "Lone Gunmen." Here's Oliver Queen actor, Stephen Amell's take on the news. Apparently someone really wants Oliver dead as they've enlisted DC's #1 and #2 assassins. He's in trouble.
