

Back in November TV Line reported that a cast member was so furious about AMC firing Darabont from the show that he/she asked to be written out of the show. As some time had past the actor requested to stay, but a source for TV Line says that AMC would ultimately grant their initial wish. Since then the young actress that played Sophia is the only member of the cast to have perished, but no one believes she was the actor that put up a stink when Darabont was let go. Now, we might have reason to believe that it was Jon Bernthal that was in fact the actor that was most agitated and vocal about Darabont's firing. Today, Variety is reporting that Jon is in early negotiations for the lead in TNT's "L.A. Noir". A show that just happens to be produced by Frank Darabont. The source tells Variety's Jeff
