

I'm not sure about you guys, but I most definitely don't remember this scene from Captain America: The First Avenger. In fact, it resembles none of the scenes or locations from the film, making it likely that this is indeed from The Avengers. With past rumours indicating that Derek Luke (Gabe Jones) would appear in the film, this trading card could be confirmation that the Second World War WILL be revisited. While some of other costume cards from this set have used images from the solo movies, it seems unlikely that they'd dedicate a full card with an old unused image. What do you guys think? Sound off with your thoughts in the usual place!
