

While Reel Movie Nation has a few details and images from today's filming of Iron Man 3 in Cary, NC, NBC-17 has spotted actor Don Cheadle, who of course reprises his Iron Man 2 role as James "Rhodey" Rhodes respectively. Spotting nabbing lunch out Epic Games Studios, check it out below. Gwyneth Paltrow has also tweeted her arrival. "A little later," reports Reel Movie Nation, "a couple of motorcycles were brought out that were marked "Miami Police" (which confirms that the film will be partly set in Miami, Florida), and a couple of black vehicles that had Government issued license plates. And then the crew brought out giant screens to block our view of the action. Even though we couldn't see anything, we could still hear someone (maybe director Shane Black, maybe not) yelling "Action," and a couple minutes later, "Cut!"

NBC-17 have also been tipped details for tomorrow's shoot: Filming is
