

Now, Goddard (who co-Cabin In The Woods with Joss Whedon) is obviously not going to turn around and say that he hated it, but the early buzz surrounding Marvel's The Avengers has so far been very good, and others who have been treated to an early screening have also had nothing but good things to say about the superhero ensemble. Talking to Collider, here's what the director and life-long Avengers fan had to say about what he saw. As you may agree, his reaction does in fact come across as being entirely genuine.
