

ShockTillYouDrop recently got the chance to sit down with Cabin In The Woods director Drew Goddard for the to talk about the blu-ray and DVD release of the film. Goodard co-wrote the script with Joss Whedon who took The Avengers from superhero team up film, to box office juggernaut. During the interview he was asked if he were given the opportunity, which Marvel character would he like to develop. While he didn't name a specific character, he did say it's all about what the right fit is. Said Goddard, "What Marvel character would I not love to get on? That's an easier question to answer. I would love any of it and I love Marvel, Joss and what they're doing. It's all about finding the right fit. Directing, in order to do your job right, you have to find ways to make it personal, and if we can

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/JakeLester/news/?a=67409>