

Mike Ryan of Movie Fone recently sat down with Dwayne 'The Rock' Johnson for an interview pertaining to Jon M. Chu's G.I. Joe: Retaliation. The film stars The Rock as Marvin Hinton, or also known as "Roadblock." Roadblock in the cartoon series was known not only for his incessant rhyming, but also for his culinary skills. As a breathe of fresh air, The Rock's version will pay homage to the character. But what was important was to pay homage to the character -- in terms of his look, in terms of his culinary skills. While there was never any discussion about if the character should or should not be rhyming, The Rock did say that his version will have an affinity for poetry, which will act as a modern updating. And in terms for his love and passion for poetry -- but not necessarily rhyming. It's my interpretation that he loved poetry. Look, we
