

In this second sneak peek from this Sunday's episode of The Walking Dead, "The Cell", Dwight and Daryl look on as a group of Negan's prisoners attempt to wrangle some walkers, presumably to bolster The Saviors' defenses. After telling him that he's getting the hang of his crossbow (RIP Denise), Dwight seems to suggest that Daryl might have the option to join Negan's gang and become a Savior... if he wants to avoid the risk of becoming zombie-chow, that is. "A new group of survivors seem to have it all in their impressive community; however, there is a price." The Walking Dead returns this Sunday at at 9 p.m. ET on AMC.
