

In the Marvel Universe, Black Widow and Hawkeye are well known comicbook characters, members of "The Avengers" as well as being the original members of the Ultimate Universe "The Ultimates". This editorial is pretty simple. I have heard for the longest about the characters being in the movie is not right and how they won't be able to help much. I for one am sick of it, mainly saying that these characters are some of my favorite heroes from both Marvel and just in general. I will admit this, I am both a hardcore DC and Marvel fan, so there is no biased opinion here, if there are DC fanboys reading this. I just want to point out my reasons why they belong in the movie. I think they are perfect because number 1, they are in Joss Whedon's hands. Joss is determined to make them feel like they realistically belong, to make
