

Glamour have an interview with the beautiful star of The Amazing Spider-Man, and while the majority of the interview didn't touch upon her role in the upcoming reboot, there was still a couple of interesting bits of information for us comic book fans. Do you think you'll go to college? There's so much I'm interested in that I didn't discover in high school. For The Amazing Spider-Man, because Gwen is a scientist, we went to a lab in San Diego, and we were learning about biology. And I'm fascinated! Because I never went to biology class in high school. [Laughs.] You also have The Amazing Spider-Man coming up next. It's different than anything else I've done. There's a lot of blue screen. The other day I was reacting to a thing that wasn't there. It's like being a kid in a refrigerator box. With an all star cast that includes Andrew Garfield as Spider-Man,

Read more: <http://www.comicbookmovie.com/fansites/joshw24/news/?a=34110&t=Emma Stone Reveals More About Her Role As Gwen Stacy In The Amazing Spider-Man>